

This figure shows the stack configuration after the first `CALL` or a single interrupt. If a `RETURN` instruction is executed, the return address will be placed in the Program Counter and the Stack Pointer decremented to the empty state (0x1F).